Revealing Necklines

- A visible cleavage line is prohibited.
  - Shirts that reveal the midriff are not permitted.
  - “Cut-off”/self-altered shirts are not permitted.
  - Undergarments need to be covered and not seen through clothing (including sports bras).
  - Messages on clothing need to be respectful. Also, messages/images of and/or depicting alcohol, drugs and tobacco are not permitted.

ENFORCEMENT – Students not adhering to these guidelines need to be addressed as follows:

1. A minor referral is written for all violations.
2. Ask the student if he/she has something to change into. If not, then...
-Alternative option based on comfort level-Call the Main Office and ask that the student be called to the office.
3. Ask the student to go to the Main Office to call a parent (Teacher needs to call the Main Office to notify that student is on the way.) If no success, then...
4. Send student to the "Clothing Closet"/Nurses office for a change of clothing.
5. ISS will be used when these strategies are not successful and defiant behavior is documented on a discipline referral.
6. Once the student is in compliance, he/she returns to class.
